3. Area, Incidence and Parties Bound

This Agreement shall be binding upon Ability Options Limited, the Australian Services Union of NSW and all employees of the Company, engaged at Northwest Personnel, a business operated by Ability Options to provide employment services for people with disabilities, and employed in classifications under clause 12 of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall totally regulate the terms and conditions of employment previously determined by the Social and Community Services Employees (State) Award. Nothing in this Agreement limits the application to employees of any conditions that apply under the Industrial Relations Act 1996, Annual Holidays Act 1944 or the Long Service Leave Act 1955.

4. Date of Operation

This Agreement shall take effect from the beginning of the first full pay period to commence on or after the date of its approval by the Industrial Relations Commission of NSW and shall remain in force for a period of two (2) years. This Agreement remains in force until a new agreement takes effect unless varied or terminated as provided by the Industrial Relations Act 1996.

5. Intention

This agreement shall apply only to employees at North West Personnel engaged in the classifications identified in the Agreement. Definitions of the classifications set out in this Agreement have been the subject of negotiations between the parties and identify the Company's requirements both practically and professionally of its employees to fulfil those classifications.

6. Duress

This Agreement has not been entered into under duress by any of the parties.

7. Probationary Period

Upon initial engagement, an employee is subject to the satisfactory completion of a three (3) month probation period. Continued employment at the expiration of this period will be dependant upon a satisfactory final appraisal. During the probation period either party may terminate the contract of employment with one week's notice, or payment or forfeiture of a week's wages in lieu of notice.

8. Hours of work

8.1 Ordinary hours of work shall not exceed one hundred and fifty two (152) hours in any 4 week period.

8.2 The ordinary hours of work shall be worked over Monday to Friday between the hours of seven (7) am and six (6) pm. Commencing and finishing times may be varied to suit the needs of the enterprise.

8.3 The ordinary hours of work shall be a minimum of four (4) hours per day and a maximum of ten (10) hours per day.

8.4 The hours of work shall provide for a minimum of a ten (10) hour break between finishing and commencing times of work.

- 8.5 Employees working more than five (5) continuous hours are entitled to a half-hour break.
- 8.6 Employees working for a period of more than five (5) hours without a break due to circumstances beyond their control are entitled to an extra half (1/2) an hour pay at the ordinary rate of pay, subject to the authorisation of the employer.

9. Part Time and Casual Employees

- 9.1 "Part-time employee" shall mean a person who works regular days and hours being less than those worked by a full-time employee.
- 9.2 Part-time employees shall be paid an hourly rate calculated as one thirty-eighth (1/38) of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in Clause 14 of this Agreement.
- 9.3 The provisions of this award shall apply to a part-time employee on a proportional basis.
- 9.4 "Casual Employee" shall mean an employee engaged to work temporary or relieving duties.
- 9.5 A casual employee shall be paid an hourly rate equal to one-thirty eighth (1/38) of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in Clause 14 of this Agreement plus an additional loading of 15% + 1/12th. This loading is paid in lieu of any entitlement to paid sick leave, public holidays, annual leave or other leave.
- 9.6 A casual employee shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours at the appropriate rate for each engagement.

10. Public Holidays

- 10.1 The following Public Holidays shall be allowed to employees without loss of pay: Christmas Day and Boxing Day; New Year's Day; Good Friday, Easter Saturday and Monday; Anzac Day; Queen's Birthday and Labour Day and any other day duly proclaimed and observed as a public holiday within the area in which the service is situated.
- 10.2 Employees required to work on a Public Holiday will be paid double time and a half for all time worked. Provided that any employee who is rostered to work on a Public Holiday but is not required to work will be paid for the rostered hours for that day at ordinary rates.

- 10.3 An employee who does not ordinarily work on a day a Public Holiday falls on, and who is rostered off duty on that Public Holiday and does not work, shall receive no payment for that day as the employee will not lose ordinary pay as a result of the day being a Public Holiday.

11. Overtime

- 11.1 An employee shall be entitled to overtime where an employee works more than 152 hours in any four week period or where the employee works more than 10 hours in any one day or where the employee works outside the ordinary spread of hours specified in subclause 8.2 of this Agreement.
- 11.2 Overtime shall only be worked with the prior approval of the employer, except in case of emergency.
- 11.3 Employees who are required to work overtime shall be entitled to time off in lieu at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours of overtime worked and double time thereafter for overtime for overtime worked Monday to Saturday and at the rate of double time for all overtime worked on Sundays.
- 11.4 Time off in lieu shall be taken at a time to be mutually agreed between the employee and their supervisor. The maximum time off in lieu that can be accrued is sixteen (16) hours.
- 11.5 Any overtime accrued in excess of 16 hours will be paid to the employee at the same rate at which it accrued.

12. Classifications

12.1 Administrative Assistant

12.1.1 Definitions

Administrative Assistant means a person engaged to perform a range of administrative, including financial and clerical duties, under the direct supervision of the Manager or another employee with delegated supervisory responsibility. The duties shall be clearly defined. Once familiar with the work place, an Administrative Assistant may be expected to exercise limited discretion and solve minor problems arising in the course of their duties and within clearly defined procedures, guidelines and policies of the service. Instruction and assistance will be readily available.

12.1.2 Requirements

A person employed as an Administrative Assistant shall be able to:

- 12.1.2(a) satisfactorily perform a range of routine general office duties of a clerical and/or support nature including, but not limited to, filing and the maintenance of existing records systems;
 - 12.1.2(b) perform general reception and telephones duties including the accurate provision of information;
 - 12.1.2(c) demonstrate proficiency in the straightforward operation of keyboard equipment including data input and basic word processing;
 - 12.1.2(d) demonstrate proficiency in the use of available office technology.
- 12.1.3 With experience, an Administrative Assistant shall be able to perform program support and/or more complex administrative duties including, but not limited to, petty cash control, ordering, and invoicing under the direction of the project manager or another employee with delegated supervisory responsibility. Such an employee may also provide limited direct support to clients of the service undertaking self-paced instructional packages and/or limited pre-employment activities and services which do not require a level of skill and/or responsibility more properly exercised by a more senior employee. Such duties may also include provision of assistance to more senior employees in client selection and referral activities, and preparation and maintenance of client records under supervision.
- 12.1.3(a) An Administrative Assistant performing the duties in 10.1.3 shall receive payment at no less than Level B within this classification.
 - 12.1.3(b) An Administrative Assistant shall not be required to supervise other staff or volunteers. No formal qualifications are required.

12.2 Administrative Officer

12.2.1 Definitions

Administrative Officer means a person engaged to perform and be responsible to the Manager of a service for a range of administrative duties and including, but not limited to financial, accounting and clerical duties ranging from the simple to the complex, for office management and for supervision of other administrative and support employees including Trainees. In keeping with the nature of client services offered by the employer, an Administrative Officer will also liaise from time to time with clients of the service and other service providers.

12.2.2 Requirements

A person employed as an Administrative Officer shall, in addition to any of the duties of an Administrative Assistant, be able to:

- 12.2.2(a) set up and administer a bookkeeping and/or accounting system including a chart of accounts for the organisation and each of its programs and services;
- 12.2.2(b) produce a range of accurate and timely financial reports, which clearly reflect the financial position of the organisation and each of its programs and services and which will enable cross-program financial management, including:
 - profit and loss statements;
 - cash flow analysis reports.
- 12.2.2(c) Under the direction of the Manager, assist in the preparation of budgets for the organisation or for individual programs and services;
- 12.2.2(d) supervise and provide necessary office-based training to administrative or other support employees;
- 12.2.2(e) operate purchasing, inventory, asset control, payroll and other administrative procedures;
- 12.2.2(f) set up and maintain a full range of personnel, client data base and other management and administrative records required by the employer;
- 12.2.2(g) be computer literate and demonstrate expertise in the use of financial and other software packages;
- 12.2.2(h) set up and maintain statistical information systems.

12.3 Training and Placement Officer Grade 1

12.3.1 Definitions

Training and Placement Officer Grade 1 shall mean a person engaged to deliver training or placement support where the employee exercises a lower range of skills and responsibilities than an employee classified as a Training and Placement Officer Grade 2. A person engaged to perform training duties under a formal training program would be limited to one vocational area of training at this level.

12.3.1(a) A person engaged to perform training duties as part of placement support shall not be limited to one vocational area but shall operate within clearly defined guidelines under the direction of the Manager or another more senior employee.

12.3.1(b) An employee who undertakes training or placement support duties and performs a wider range of duties than the following shall be classified as a Training and Placement Officer Grade 2 and not as a Training and Placement Officer Grade 1.

12.3.2 Requirements

12.3.2(a) In respect of an employee engaged primarily to deliver training to clients of the Service, the employee may be expected to perform the following duties:

- to participate in the client selection and assessment of client needs or suitability for the area in which they provide instruction or placement support;
- to assist in following up client outcomes for their area of instruction or placement support;
- to liaise with employers to organise work experience, work placement and industry support in their area of instruction or placement support;
- to undertake necessary planning and evaluation under supervision.

12.3.2(b) In respect of an employee engaged primarily to provide placement support to clients of the Service, the employee may be expected to perform the following duties:

- To provide on-the-job training, placement and support to clients according to the individual client service program under the direction of a more senior employee. While the employee may assist a more senior officer to carry out client selection, assessment and/or preparation of individual client service programs, they would not exercise sole or principal responsibility for such functions;

12.4 Training and Placement Officer Grade 2

12.4.1 Definitions

Training and Placement Officer Grade 2 shall mean a multi-functioned employee who is engaged to provide direct services to participants in training courses, placement or support services and other programs and activities provided by the employer.

12.4.2 Requirements

12.4.2(a) Such employees would be required to assist in the development and administration of programs. This may include arranging and conducting training courses, preparation of training curriculum and plans, client assessment activities, preparation of individual client service programs, the conduct of employment placement and/or support services and other activities. They may exercise some organising functions in respect of sessional employees, Training and Placement Officers Grade 1 and/or Administrative Assistants. They may be expected to participate in processes:

- to evaluate course and program effectiveness and relevance;
- to monitor and review individual client service programs;
- to monitor, report and advise on client outcomes;
- to carry out case management functions and duties.

12.4.2(b) A Training and Placement Officer Grade 2 is required to exercise professional judgement within the policy parameters of the employer and may also be required to:

- write reports and assist in the preparation of funding proposals;
- liaise with and market to employers, industry and the community;
- participate in co-ordination activities with other agencies;
- refer clients to appropriate agencies and programs;
- carry out client placement activities;

13. Remuneration

The salaries are subject to review annually. Performance review will be conducted six (6) monthly. Pay increments are conditional on a positive annual performance evaluation with the employee's supervisor, and staff adhering to their agreed job description.

14. Value of Salary Packages - P.A. Plus Superannuation

14.1 Incremental progression

14.1.1 At the conclusion of each twelve months period following the date of effect of the agreement or entry into a classification and/or the subsequent anniversary date, employees shall be eligible for incremental progression if:

14.1.1(a) the employee has given satisfactory performance over the preceding twelve months, and

14.1.1(b) the employee has, on assessment acquired and is required by the employer to utilise new and/or enhanced skills within the ambit of the classification definition for his/her position or other skills where agreed at the staff development/performance review, and this has been certified to in writing following, and as part of, the assessment process.

14.1.2 In cases where the review is delayed the anniversary date shall not be changed and the increase if any will be paid retrospectively to the anniversary date.

14.1.3 Movement to a higher classification shall only occur by way of promotion or reclassification.

22. SALARY PACKAGING

Subject to the provisions of Clause 22(c), Ability Options and a full-time or part-time employee may reach an agreement to package up to 50% of the employee's real wage to a non-salary fringe benefit, provided such salary packaging arrangement does not exceed a total grossed-up value of $30,000. Such salary packaging arrangements to be implemented as follows:

- (a) A proportion of the employee's salary will be received by the employee as money, and a proportion will be received in the form of a fringe benefit.
- (b) A copy of the agreement shall be made available to the employee, provided that the contents of the employee's salary package will remain confidential to the parties.
- (c) Ability Options shall ensure the structure of any package complies with relevant taxation laws. This includes ensuring compliance with any ceiling on the amount of salary that may be packaged, and acceptance of any Fringe Benefits Tax ('FBT') liability arising out of an agreed salary package.
- (d) Expense items claimed should be principally applicable to, or the direct responsibility of the employee. The following expenses may be deemed to be a fringe benefit for the purpose of this Agreement:
 - (1) Payment of mortgage or rent
 - (2) Payment of rates and utilities
 - (3) Payment of property and life/health insurance's
 - (4) Payment of motor vehicle costs and related expenses
 - (5) Personal loan repayments
 - (6) Payment of credit card expenses, except cash advances

Registered Enterprise Agreement Industrial Registrar

- (7) Payment of other genuine expenses by agreement with the appropriate nominated officer
- (e) An expense that may be claimed as a tax deduction may not be claimed as a fringe benefit.
- (f) The parties to a salary package agreement under this clause will observe the appropriate procedure set out in the outsourcing company's Administrative Procedures Manual in order to claim an expense as a fringe benefit. This means, for example, that an employee who has entered into a salary package agreement under this clause must provide invoices, receipts or other proof of expenditure in order to claim the expense as a fringe benefit.
- (g) It is intended that no employee who enters into a salary package agreement under this clause will suffer a net detriment in his or her terms and conditions of employment. As such;
- (1) If the total value of the salary package received by the employee is less than what the employee would have been paid if the employee had been remunerated under the Award in any financial year, Ability Options shall pay the employee an amount being the difference between the total remuneration received by the employee and what the employee would have earned under the Award in that financial year.
 - (2) For the purposes of Clause 22(g)(1), a "financial year" means from 1 July in one year and 30 June in the immediately following year. Any payment made by Ability Options in accordance with Clause 22(g)(1) shall be made in the first pay period on or after 1 July in each year.
 - (3) All other entitlements under the Awards (other than paid leave entitlements), and superannuation will be calculated by reference to the rate of pay in clause 14.2 of this Agreement.
 - (4) A salary package agreement reached pursuant to this clause shall be regarded as ordinary pay for the purposes of paid leave entitlements such as public holidays, annual leave, long service leave and personal/carer's leave.

- (5) If an employee becomes entitled to any payment(s) pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Act 1987, Ability Options shall continue to provide to an employee any balance of the agreed salary package not covered by workers compensation payment(s).
- (h) With the agreement of the outsourcing company and provided at least one (1) month's notice is given, an employee may:
- (1) change the components of the salary package agreement under this clause; or
 - (2) elect to discontinue salary packaging arrangements, and revert to the appropriate rate of pay in clause 14.2.
- (i) Salary packaging is only offered on the strict understanding and agreement that in the event existing taxation law is changed regarding FBT or personal taxation arrangements, and that change may impact on this agreement, all salary packaging arrangements may, at the discretion of Ability Options, be terminated, or varied to comply with the legislation, provided at least one (1) month's notice is given. Upon termination in these circumstances the employee's rate of pay will revert to the appropriate rate of pay in clause 14.2.
- (j)
- (1) In the event the employee ceases employment with Ability Options this agreement with that employee will cease as at the date of termination.
 - (2) Upon termination of an employee's employment, any outstanding benefit still due pursuant to this agreement, shall be paid on or before the date of termination.
- (k) A copy of the agreement, and of the outsourcing company's Administrative Procedures Manual shall be made available to the employee.
- (l) 'Remunerator' is the designated provider of salary packaging services to Ability Options.

23 Grievance and Disputes Settling Procedure

- 23.1 The parties recognise that individual and group problems will arise from time to time and that it is necessary to resolve these matters promptly, without affecting the delivery of a high standard of service. The parties to this Agreement are committed to resolving grievances and disputes through open and frank communication.
- 23.2 In the event of an individual or group of employees raising a grievance, or in the event of a dispute arising out of disciplinary action or for any other reason, the following procedure shall be followed:
- (a) The employee(s) shall discuss the matter with the Co-ordinator. The Co-ordinator shall regard any matter so raised as urgent and will make every effort to resolve the matter within 48 hours.
 - (b) If the matter is still unresolved, then the matter should be taken to, in ascending order: the General manager, Management Committee, Ability Options Board.
 - (c) The Management Committee should deal with all formal grievances and disputes within 28 days. The actions and decisions of the Management Committee must be documented.
 - (d) Should the matter remain unresolved the matter may be referred to the Industrial Relations Commission of NSW for conciliation and arbitration, or by agreement to a neutral third party for mediation.
 - (e) Employees are entitled to have a representative or nominee present during any of these stages.
 - (f) Normal work shall continue while the procedure outlined above is being followed. Except in the event that an employee is suspended for alleged misconduct, no party shall be prejudiced as to final settlement by continuing work in accordance with the disputes procedure.

24 Termination

- 24.1 (a) Except as in hereafter provided, employment may be terminated at any time by either the employer or the employee giving the notice in writing, in accordance with the following notice of termination provisions as per the Workplace Relations Act 1996:

(b) Period of continuous service	Period of notice
Less than 1 year	1 week
1 year and less than 3 years	2 weeks
3 years and less than 5 years	3 weeks
5 years and over	4 weeks

In addition, where the employer is giving notice to an employee who is over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of the notice with not less than two years continuous service, the employee shall be entitled to an additional one week's notice.

(c) Provided the employer will consider releasing the employee from such notice should circumstances so warrant.

24.2 The provisions of this clause shall not effect the right of the employer to dismiss an employee without notice in the case of an employee guilty of misconduct.

24.3 Except in the event of gross negligence or misconduct by the employee, the employer shall not terminate the services of the employee for unsatisfactory performance unless the employee has been formally assessed in line with an appropriate performance appraisal procedure developed by the employer in consultation with employees.

24.4 Where an employee is summarily dismissed, the employee is entitled to lodge a written appeal to the Chairperson, which will be circulated to Directors. The employee is entitled to seek leave to attend the meeting of the Board relating to his/her appeal. In the event that the appeal is upheld, the employer will withdraw the decision to dismiss.

24.5 Following termination of employment, the employer will furnish the employee with a Certificate of Service in the following form:

- (i) Employee's name
- (ii) Period of employment
- (iii) Title of position
- (iv) Salary at termination
- (v) Nature of work
- (vi) Other comments where appropriate.
