2. TITLE

This document shall be known as the TDG COLD STORAGE - Prospect ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 1997, hereinafter called the Agreement.

3. DEFINITIONS

The parties to the Agreement shall be TDG Cold Storage Pty Ltd, hereinafter called the employer, the employees engaged by the employer at the Prospect Cold Storage site to perform work regulated by the terms and conditions of the Agreement, hereinafter called the employees, and the Australasian Meat Industry Employees Union, New South Wales Branch, hereinafter called the union.

4. APPLICATION, STATUS & INCONSISTENCY

The terms and conditions of the Agreement shall replace the terms and conditions contained in the Cold Storage Enterprise ~~Agreement~~ ^{Arrangement} 1994 Award (IRC 1917/94) NSW and the Cold Storage and Ice Employees (State) Award of NSW, hereinafter called the Award.

The provisions contained in the ^{latter} Award which had application at the Prospect site have been incorporated into the Agreement and the terms of the Agreement shall prevail. Should it happen the Agreement is silent on a matter then the terms and conditions of the Award as they would apply to that matter shall prevail.

5. LIFE OF AGREEMENT

The Agreement shall commence on the day on which the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales, hereinafter called the commission, approves and registers the Agreement and shall continue until 30th April, 1998. The parties shall commence to negotiate a new Agreement in January 1998 and in the event a new agreement is not filed and registered to replace the Agreement by 30th April 1998, they may elect to continue with the terms and conditions of this Agreement until such a new agreement is finalised and registered.

6. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

6.1 Employees shall be employed on a weekly, part-time or casual basis; where an employee is engaged on a weekly basis their employment may be terminated by the appropriate notice on either side given on any day after one week's employment or by the payment or forfeiture of a week's wages in lieu of such notice.

6.2 The employer shall have the right to deduct payment for any day or portion thereof during which the employee is stood down as the result of refusal of duty, malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct on the part of the employee or to deduct payment for any day during which the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or due to any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

- 6.3 The employer shall have the right to dismiss an employee, without notice, for refusal of duty, malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in such cases the wages shall be payable up to the time of dismissal only.
- 6.4 A "fixed term employee" shall mean an employee engaged on a weekly basis for a specified period.
- 6.5 All new weekly and part-time employees shall serve a probationary period of two (2) months from the date of commencement of employment with the employer. Provided that any employment as a casual employee which runs consecutively with the above weekly employment shall be deemed to be part of the two month period.
- 6.6 In order to promote labour flexibility the following employee duties shall apply to all employees employed under this agreement after proper training:
- (a) Employees shall perform such work as is reasonable and lawful required of them by the employer including accepting instructions from authorised personnel such as a job superintendent, supervisor or leading hand or from nominated technical personnel;
 - (b) Employees shall comply with all reasonable requests to transfer, or change jobs;
 - (c) Employees shall accept responsibility for the quality, accuracy and completion of any job or task assigned to the employee;
 - (d) Employees shall keep in good working order any equipment or materials they are supplied with;
 - (e) Employees shall not impose or continue to enforce existing demarcation barriers between the work of employees provided that it is agreed that the work lies within the scope of the skill and competence of the employee concerned;
 - (f) Employees shall not impose any limitations or continue to enforce any limitations on supervisors or technical personnel demonstrating the use of equipment or machinery or in emergency situations;
 - (g) Employees shall not impose any restrictions or limitations on the measurement and/or review of work methods or standard work times;
 - (h) Employees shall comply with the relevant Occupational Health and Safety procedures and the relevant Act;

10.3 Weekend Loadings for Ordinary Hours

- (a) All work performed at ordinary time on Saturday will be paid at ordinary time plus 50% (Refer to Schedule A)
- (b) All work performed at ordinary time on Sunday will be paid at ordinary time plus 75% (Refer to Schedule A).

10.4 Dayworkers and Shift Workers

- (a) The 38 hour week shall be worked on one of the following basis:

- [i] Thirty-eight ordinary hours of service shall constitute a week's work;
- [ii] The ordinary hours may be worked in any of the following ways by agreement:
 - * Five equal days per week;
 - * Nineteen equal days in twenty;
 - * Four equal days and one short day per week;
 - * Four equal days per week;
 - * Three equal days over 5 weeks and four equal days in the sixth week;
 - * Any other agreed method of implementation which may include an accrual system for a rostered day off to a pattern determined by the employer with up to 5 days of accrual.

[iii] Such hours shall be worked in shifts of not less than four and no more than ten consecutive hours.

(b) The method or methods of operating less than ten hours per day may be any of the following to be implemented at the discretion of the employer in consultation with an employee. Whereby an employee:

- [i] Works less than 8 ordinary hours each day; or
- [ii] Works less than 8 ordinary hours on one or more days; or
- [iii] By rostering an employee off on a day of a week during a particular work cycle so that the employee has one day off during that cycle, where the employee is rostered to work no more than 8 ordinary hours on each shift of day; or
- [iv] Circumstances may arise where different methods of operating the 38 hour week apply to different groups or sections of employees with the business of an employer; and
- [v] For purposes of the Agreement a day which is rostered off work during a particular work cycle shall be called a rostered day off, hereinafter called an RDO.

11. MAXIMUM HOURS ON ORDINARY TIME

No employee shall be rostered to work for more than ten hours on ordinary time in any one day without the payment of overtime.

12. ROSTERS

12.1 A part-time and weekly employee shall be subject to a roster which shall state the employee's starting and finishing time and the days which the employee is required for work.

12.2 A roster may be any one as stated at above.

12.3 An employee's starting and finishing times of ordinary work may be changed by mutual agreement between the employee and the employer without notice.

12.4 An employee's starting and finishing times of ordinary work may be changed without mutual agreement by the employer giving 48 hours notice of such change to the employee.

12.5 An employee's roster showing the days on which the employee is required for ordinary work may be changed by the employer giving to the employee seven days notice or where the employer and the employee mutually agree without notice.

13. ROSTERED DAYS OFF

13.1 An employee working on a roster may:

- (a) accumulate one RDO in each four week work cycle; and
- (b) Not take an RDO between October and April inclusive of both months; and;
- (c) An employee may elect, with the consent of the employer to either -
 - [i] Have the accumulated RDO's paid out at the ordinary rate of pay, or
 - [ii] Take the accumulated RDO's off work without loss of pay during the months of May to September, provided the days chosen to be taken are suitable to the employer, or
 - [iii] Have the accumulated RDO's added to their annual leave.

13.2 The employer shall make available a table of days in the appropriate months when accumulated RDO's may be taken.

- 13.3 The employer shall not be unreasonable in reaching agreement for the taking of RDO's.
- 13.4 During the months of May to September an employee may volunteer to work on their RDO accumulated during his/her 4 week cycle and be paid at the ordinary rate in addition to their RDO and the overtime clause shall not apply in such case.

14. OVERTIME

- 14.1 An employee may be required to work reasonable overtime.
- 14.2 A weekly employee shall not work more than 38 hours in any one week without the payment of overtime unless the employee is on a four week work cycle in which case the employee shall not work more than 38 hours in any one week when averaged over the 4 week work cycle.
- 14.3 No employee shall work outside the spread of ordinary hours without the payment of overtime.
- 14.4 An employee who works outside their rostered hours shall be paid overtime except if the employee is working make-up time in which case the ordinary rate shall apply.
- 14.5 Overtime shall be paid at time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
- 14.6 An employee may be expected to work overtime during a stocktake period provided:
- (a) The employee is given not less than 7 days notice of being required to work overtime; and
 - (b) No employee is required to work overtime on more than 4 stocktake periods in any one calendar year; and
 - (c) An employee who would suffer genuine personal hardship by working overtime during a stocktake period may seek an exemption to such overtime by providing to the employer the grounds of the personal hardship. However, the employer may reject such grounds and the issue may be treated under the disputes procedure.
- 14.7 By mutual agreement an employee who has worked overtime may forgo overtime payment and take the equivalent time off work for which they would have been paid for the working of the overtime.

- 14.8 An employee who works overtime whilst on afternoon shift or night shift shall be paid at double time the ordinary rate if such employee works overtime in order to replace a casual employee.
- 14.9 After completing or being rostered to complete a normal weekly roster a weekly employee may volunteer to work additional hours and the company shall give preference to such a request where work is available and would otherwise be undertaken by a casual employee. Such additional hours will be paid Monday to Friday at ordinary rates of pay and Saturday at 150% the ordinary rate of pay.
- 14.10 An employee required for overtime work on a Saturday shall have not less than 4 hours work or be paid for not less than if they worked for 4 hours at the overtime rate.

Enterprise Agreement

15. AUTHORISED BREAKS INCLUDING MEAL TIME Registrar

- 15.1 No employee shall be required to work more than 5 hours without a meal break except:
- (a) Where a casual or part-time employee is engaged for only 6 hours in that shift in which case no meal break shall be taken; and
 - (b) Where the unloading of a truck commenced before the meal break was to be taken and the employee shall:
 - [i] Continue to take delivery of stock and complete the removal of the stock from the truck; and
 - [ii] Place the stock in a secure location where refrigeration and or freezing procedures are applied to the stock; and
 - [iii] The employee shall take the meal break thereafter and no penalty shall apply for the employee taking a delayed meal break.
- 15.2 The meal break for an employee on day shift shall be for 30 minutes and be unpaid.
- 15.3 An employee on afternoon shift or night shift shall receive a paid meal break of 20 minutes.
- 15.4 In addition to the meal break an employee shall be entitled to a 20 minute paid break during the course of their work shift.
- 15.5 An employee engaged in the unloading of stock from a truck shall continue the unloading and receipt of the stock until complete and shall secure the stock in the proper procedure for refrigeration or freezer to be applied to the stock before taking the work break.

- 15.6 The employer and the employee may decide when authorised breaks are to be taken to best suit the needs of the enterprise.

16. SUNDAYS AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

- 16.1 The following days shall be recognised as holidays: New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Eight Hour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, all proclaimed public holidays for the State and the annual picnic day of the Australasian Meat Industry Employees' Union, New South Wales Branch of which day one month's notice shall be given by union to employers.
- 16.2 Time worked on Holidays defined in this clause shall be paid for at the rate of double time and one-half inclusive of public holiday pay with a minimum payment of 4 hours for all employees.
- 16.3 All weekly and part-time employees shall be paid for the holidays specified in this clause: Provided that such employees do not absent themselves from work on the working day preceding or the working day succeeding such holiday and have not ceased work without permission before the normal time of ceasing work in either or both of these days.
- 16.4 When such holidays fall on consecutive days an employee who works either the working day preceding or the working day succeeding such holiday, but not on both shall be entitled to payment for such holiday closest to the said day on which the employee works provided they have not ceased work without permission, on such said day.
- 16.5 The employer may consider it appropriate that a review of provisions concerning public holidays and the picnic day occur so as to improve efficiency by increasing the flexibility in this area. The following areas should be reviewed by agreement with the employee[s] concerned:
- [a] Substituting of days in lieu of the taking of public holidays [including the picnic day] during peak periods;
 - [b] Where substitution does occur the day or days may be taken in half day lots by agreement;
 - [c] No notice required for the working of a public holiday if it is required for reasons of an emergency situation or where it is agreed by the employee concerned;
 - [d] Minimum payment of 4 hours on public holidays.
- 16.6 Where an employee's roster does not include a Public Holiday when it occurs as a normal working day the employee shall be entitled to payment for that day at the classification rate.

17. FAMILY LEAVE

- 17.1 An employee who is required to provide genuine family care, where prior notice was not available to the employee of such need, shall have up to 3 days per calendar year for such leave.
- 17.2 An employee applying for family leave shall be required to satisfy the employer that such leave is genuine and no prior notice was available to the employee in which time they would have made alternative arrangements to provide care for the family member.
- 17.3 Family leave taken under this clause shall be deducted from the employee's unused sick leave entitlements; or annual leave, or banked RDO's
- 17.4 For the purpose of this clause family leave shall only apply in the event of needing to care for the employee's spouse, defacto, child, mother, father or another member of the household who is dependent upon the employee to provide the care.
- 17.5 An employee seeking family leave shall if necessary, provide evidence, satisfactory to the employer, of the illness of the family member and the relationship of the family member to the employee. The same requirement shall apply if the person requiring care is a member of the employee's household and not a family member.
- 17.6 For the purposes of this clause an employee taking family leave shall not have their ordinary pay deducted for the period of family leave but such leave shall not be cumulative from year to year.

18. ANNUAL LEAVE

- 18.1 An employee shall be entitled to paid annual leave after the completion of 12 months continuous service in accordance with the Annual Holidays Act 1944, hereinafter called the Act.
- 18.2 An employee seeking annual leave shall apply to the employer at least one month prior to the date when annual leave is requested.
- 18.3 The employer may require an employee to take annual leave to suit the running of the business.

19. ANNUAL LEAVE LOADING

- 19.1 At the time an employee is given and takes their annual leave, or, where by agreement between the employer and employee the annual leave is given and taken in more than one separate period, then before each of such separate periods, the employer shall pay the employee an annual leave loading.
- 19.2 An employee taking annual leave shall be entitled to be paid, in addition to their annual leave, a 17.5% loading for all time taken as annual leave providing the employee has worked 12 continuous months since their commencement date anniversary with the employer.
- 19.3 No loading is payable to an employee who takes annual leave wholly in advance.
- 19.4 (a) When the employment of an employee is terminated by the employer, for a cause other than misconduct and at the time of the termination the employee has not been given and has not taken the whole of an annual leave to which they are entitled, they shall be paid the annual leave loading.
- 19.5 An employee who commences annual leave before they have completed 12 continuous months of employment since their commencement date anniversary shall only be paid the annual leave loading only for the period of annual leave which falls after the anniversary date.
- 19.6 Nothing in clause 19 above shall prevent an employee and the employer from making other mutually acceptable arrangements.

20. SICK LEAVE

An employee who, after not less than three months continuous service in their employment with the employer is unable to attend for duty during their ordinary working hours by reason of personal illness or personal incapacity (excluding illness or incapacity resulting from injury within the Worker's Compensation Act, 1987 as amended), received in the said employment (not due to their own serious and wilful misconduct) shall be entitled to be paid for such non-attendance the amount of their ordinary rate of pay, subject to the following:

- 20.1 Where an employee is absent from duty by reason of incapacity due to injury arising out of or in the course of their employment and is receiving compensation under the Workers; Compensation Act, 1987, as amended, the employer shall pay to such employee, if they so request, in addition to such compensation, the difference between the amount of the compensation and their ordinary time rates of pay (exclusive of overtime and other penalty payments) with a minimum payment not exceeding the balance, if any, of their entitlement to paid leave of absence under this Clause.

- 20.2 The employer shall, within two (2) hours of the commencement of such absence (where possible) inform the employer of their inability to attend for duty and, as far as possible, state the nature of the illness or incapacity and the estimated duration of the same.

If the employee is unable to inform the employer within this time, their shall inform the employer within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence.

- 20.3 For the purpose of ascertaining whether or not an employee is or has been ill and the particulars thereof (including, where applicable, the estimated duration of their absence) the employer through any person appointed by it to interview employees for the purpose state (such appointment being notified to the Union), shall have the right to interview any employee who is or has been absent from duty. Where a person so appointed is a legally qualified medical practitioner the right to interview an employee shall include the right to examine the employee.

- 20.4 The employee shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer that they are or were unable, on account of such illness or incapacity, to attend for duty on the day or days for which payment under this clause is claimed.

Notwithstanding the above, for absences before or after public holidays and rostered days off, proof by way of a medical certificate shall be supplied irrespective of the length of the absence.

- 20.5 An employee shall not be entitled in respect of any year of continuous service to sick pay and pay, supplementary to Workers' Compensation, in accordance with the following:

- (a) In the first year of service;

After 3 months continuous service - 2 days
After 6 months continuous service - further 2 days
After 9 months continuous service - further 2 days
After 1 years continuous service - further 2 days

Total paid days sick leave entitlement - 8 days.

- (b) In the second and subsequent years of service

Total paid days sick leave entitlement - 10 days.

- (c) Any period of paid sick leave or pay, supplementary to Workers' Compensation, allowed by the employer to an employee, in any such year, shall be deducted from the period of leave which may be allowed or carried forward under this clause in respect of such year.

- 20.6 An employee shall not be entitled in respect of any year of continued employment to sick pay and pay supplementary to workers' compensation for more than a total amount equivalent to payment for eight days in the first year of employment and ten days in the second and subsequent years. Any period of paid sick leave or pay supplementary to workers' compensation allowed by the employer to an employee, in any such year, shall be deducted from the period of leave which may be allowed or carried forward under this clause in respect of such year. No payment shall be due for illness or incapacity for less than one day.

- 20.7 The rights under this clause shall accumulate from year to year so long as their employment continues with the employer, so that any part of eight days or ten days which has not been allowed in any year, may be claimed by the employee and shall be allowed by the employer, subject to the conditions prescribed by this clause, in a subsequent year of such continued employment. Any rights which accumulate, pursuant to this subclause, shall be available to the employee whilst they remain in the employ of the employer.
- 20.8 An employee, who unreasonably refuses the interview or unreasonably refuses or prevents the examination specified in subclause 20.3 of this clause, shall not be entitled to payment for the period during which they are absent from duty.
- 20.9 For the purpose of this clause continuous service shall be deemed not having been broken:
- (a) Any absence from work on leave granted by the employer.
- (b) Any absence from work by reason of personal illness, injury or other reasonable cause (proof whereof shall in each case be upon the employee); provided that any time so lost shall not be taken into account in computing the qualifying period of three months.
- 20.10 Provided that once an employee has had three months' continuous service with the employer they shall be paid for any absence owing to illness during the first three months of service.
- 20.11 Service before the date of coming into force of this Clause shall be counted as service for the purpose of qualifying thereunder.
- 20.12 This Clause does not apply to casual employees.
- 20.13 Notwithstanding anything else stated in this clause, an employee, but not a casual employee, who has in excess of 10 days of unused sick leave at the end of their anniversary date of employment may elect to be paid those excess days on a day in that calendar year as determined by the employer.

21. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

- 21.1 An employee shall, on the death of the wife, husband, father, mother, child or stepchild, brother or sister, mother-in-law or father-in-law of the employee, be entitled to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such relation. Such leave shall for a period not exceeding 16 working hours be without loss of any ordinary pay which the employee would have earned if they had not been on such leave.

21.2 The right to such leave will be dependent on compliance with the following conditions:

- (a) The employee shall give the employer notice of intention to take such leave as soon as reasonably practicable after the death of such relation;
- (b) The employee shall furnish proof of such death to the satisfaction of the employer;
- (c) The employee shall not be entitled to leave under this Clause during any period in respect of which he had been granted any other leave.

21.3 For the purpose of this clause the words wife or husband shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is separated but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto.

21.4 This Clause does not apply to casual employees.

22. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES PROCEDURE

22.1 In the event of a dispute or grievance arising out of employment the following procedure shall be followed:

- (a) The employee shall raise the dispute or grievance with their immediate manager or supervisor in an attempt to resolve the dispute or grievance;
- (b) If the matter is not resolved the employee may refer the dispute or grievance to the employee representative, or union delegate whichever is the case, and the employee representative shall discuss the dispute or grievance with the next level of management in an attempt to resolve the dispute or grievance;
- (c) If the matter is not resolved the union delegate may refer the matter to their union office and the manager may refer the matter to their enterprise's senior manager;
- (d) The matter shall be discussed between a senior union official and senior manager, or their representatives, in an attempt to resolve the dispute or grievance;
- (e) If the dispute is not resolved within 49 hours of when it was referred to the senior representatives then either side may refer the dispute or grievance to the commission for resolution.

- 22.2 Whilst the above procedure is being followed work shall continue as normal and no stop-work meeting shall take place.
- 22.3 If the dispute or grievance arises from a changed work practice which has not previously being discussed and agreed then the situation existing before the dispute or grievance arose shall continue whilst this procedure is being followed.
- 22.4 No side shall be prejudiced in the final outcome of a resolution by following the status quo provision.
- 22.5 Notwithstanding anything else written in this clause no employee shall be expected to work in a situation or area where there is a genuine risk to health and safety.

23 . COUNSELLING PROCEDURE

- 23.1 The employer shall follow a disciplinary procedure directed towards improving the conduct, performance and work standard of each employee.
- 23.2 The employer shall take all reasonable steps to make known to employees, by way of verbal and or printed communication, the required standard of performance and conduct which is expected whilst at the workplace or in circumstances which would directly impact on the workplace.
- 23.3 The employer shall have a counselling and warning procedure which shall be consistent with the terms of this clause.
- 23.4 When the employer is to issue a warning to an employee the following steps shall be observed:
- (a) The employee shall be advised of the complaint against them;
 - (b) The employee shall be entitled to place their defence to the complaint and the employer shall consider such response prior to issuing the warning;
 - (c) The employer shall advise the employee what shall be expected of the employee to improve their work performance or conduct and the employer shall provide the employee with any reasonable assistance to achieve the required standard of performance and or conduct;
 - (d) The warning shall be recorded in writing and the employee shall be requested to sign the warning and shall be given a copy thereof;
 - (e) The warning shall contain the complaint raised by the employer, the response or defence given by the employee and any follow-up which may be required. The warning shall also note the seriousness of the complaint and if the employee's employment is in jeopardy or likely to be in jeopardy;

- (f) The employee shall be entitled to have the employee representative, or union delegate whichever is the case, present at all stages of the warning if so requested.

23.5 An employee who disregards the seriousness of a warning or refuses to acknowledge counselling may be terminated provided the employee is advised that their behaviour in disregarding the warning and or counselling may result in termination.

23.6 The employer may, in lieu of termination, with the consent of the employee representative, or union delegate - whichever is the case, stand-down the offending employee without pay for a period of one working day and up to twenty working days. However, the employer shall not adopt this alternative for the same employee more than once in any twelve month period.

24. PAYMENT OF WAGES

24.1 Payment of wages and other work related allowances and entitlements shall be paid by electronic funds transfer, hereinafter called EFT.

24.2 Wages may be paid weekly, fortnightly or monthly by agreement between the employer and the employee.

25. WAGES

Wages shall be paid in accordance with schedule A & C at the rear of the Agreement.

26. CONSULTATIVE & PRODUCTIVITY MECHANISM

26.1 The employer and employees shall form a joint consultative committee, hereinafter called the JCC, which shall comprise not more than three members of management and three representatives from the employees.

26.2 The JCC shall operate throughout the life of the Agreement and shall meet as required or as decided arising from a meeting of the JCC. In any event the JCC shall meet at least once in each eight week period.

26.3 The JCC shall review the progress of the Agreement and ensure that the interests of the employer and employees are being met.

26.4 Notwithstanding anything else in this clause the JCC shall examine, discuss and agree upon an acceptance work standard for the enterprise and or each work function.

- 26.5 In addition the JCC shall establish a program on how productivity increases above the work standard can be achieved and a formula whereby the employer and the employees can fairly share the benefits of increased productivity.
- 26.6 Nothing in this clause shall prevent the benefits arising from increased productivity being expressed as further wage increases for employees subject to sustaining the increased productivity.

27. FREEZER ALLOWANCE

- 27.1 The employer shall pay an employee (permanent, part-time, casual) who works in the freezer chamber an allowance of $1.21 per hour for work done in the freezer chamber.
- 27.2 For each hour of overtime worked the freezer allowance of $1.21 per hour shall be paid in addition to the overtime rate.
- 27.3 The freezer allowance shall be paid for all purposes of the Agreement excluding overtime as per clause 27.2 above.
- 27.4 For purposes of the clause a freezer chamber shall be a chamber where the temperature operates below minus 18 degrees celsius.

28. ALLOWANCES GENERALLY

Work related allowances, other than freezer allowances, shall be paid as per Schedule B attached.

29. ACCIDENT PAY

For the purpose of this clause the following words shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, have the following meanings:

- 29.1 "Accident Pay" means a weekly payment of an amount representing the difference between the amount of compensation received and the rate of wage prescribed for such employee for the week in question.
- 29.2 "Compensation" means the weekly payment for incapacity made pursuant to the Act and in the case of partial incapacity includes the amount which the employee earned or which the Workers' Compensation Commission determines or the parties agree the employee was able to earn in the week in question in some suitable employment or business.
- 29.3 "Injury" means personal injury arising out of or in the course of the employment (including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing any disease to which the provisions of the Act apply and any injury received during a daily or other periodic journey or any other journey to which the provisions of the Act apply or during any ordinary recess referred to in section 7 of the Act) resulting in incapacity and for which compensation is being paid.

30. JURY SERVICE

An employee on weekly hiring required to attend for jury service during their ordinary working hours shall be reimbursed by the employer an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of their attendance for such jury service and the amount of wage they would have received in respect of the ordinary time they would have worked had they not been on jury service.

An employee shall notify their employer as soon as possible of the date upon which they are required to attend for jury service. Further, the employee shall give their employer proof of his/her attendance, the duration of attendance and the amount received in respect of such jury service. The provisions of this clause do not apply to employees of The Metropolitan Meat Industry board.

31. EMPLOYEE PROTECTION & CLOTHING

Industrial Registrar

- 31.1 An employee required to work in the freezer chamber shall be supplied with a blanket suit, gloves, freezer boots and suitable head covering and overalls if requested.
- 31.2 An employee shall be entitled to appropriate safety footwear whilst working in the movement of stock.
- 31.3 The employer shall provide appropriate protective clothing for an employee expected to work in wet or iced conditions such as gum boots and waterproof coats if reasonably required.
- 31.4 The employer shall provide facilities for the satisfactory drying of protective clothing between shifts.
- 31.5 Employees when overheated, through working outside, shall be allowed to cool down before entering the chamber.
- 31.6 No employees shall be called upon to work in a chamber where the floor is wet or substantially iced, or where there is a serious dripping of moisture from pipes or where a leak of ammonia exists. Where wet or iced conditions prevail employees shall be required to perform such work as required by management to alleviate such conditions, before a normal resumption of work takes place.

32. TERMINATION

- 32.1 Termination of employment may take place by giving of notice in accordance with the following table:

Years of Employment	Notice period
Less than 1 year	1 week
1 year but less than 3 years	2 weeks
3 years but less than 5 years	3 weeks
5 years and over	4 weeks

- 32.2 An employee who is terminated by the employer and who is over 45 years of age shall be entitled to receive one extra week in addition to the notice in the table above.
- 32.3 An employee wishing to terminate their employment shall be required to give to the employer the same notice as in the table above but an employee over 45 years of age shall not be expected to give the extra one week.
- 32.4 The employer and employee may agree to forgo the notice period and mutually agree to another period and in this event the employee shall be paid for only the time worked.
- 32.5 The employer shall be entitled to pay to an employee the notice period or the balance of the notice period and in such case the employee shall terminate at the time of payment.
- 32.6 Termination payment shall be paid by EFT unless the employer and the employee mutually agree to another method of payment.
- 32.7 An employee who is terminated summarily for serious misconduct shall not be entitled to any notice.

33. REDUNDANCY

33.1 Definitions

- (a) "Redundancy" is when an actual reduction in the number of permanent employees employed at the enterprise shall occur as a result of economic downturn or technological change and where alternative employment cannot be found.
- [i] Where an employer initiates a reduction in the number of permanent employees required, redundancy shall apply; or
- [ii] The employer ceases to carry on the business at the current location and does not offer transfer and continuing employment at a new location.

- (b) Casual employment shall not be included for the purpose of redundancy.
- (c) "Ordinary rate of pay" means the normal weekly payment received by an employee for the ordinary hours of work at the date of redundancy and shall be determined at average rate paid for annual leave. It shall include allowances normally paid, such as Leading Hand allowances, First Aid Allowances, but excludes any shift allowance or overtime penalty payments.

33.2 Notice of Redundancy

Where the enterprise proposes to terminate the employment of an employee on account of redundancy it shall:-

- (a) Advise the employees of the intention to cease operations at least one month in advance and will give individual employees notice of redundancy. Notwithstanding the above, each employee will be given maximum practicable notice of termination of service:
- (b) An employee who terminates their employment on a date prior to having received the formal notice of redundancy hereof will not be eligible for any redundancy payment.

33.3 Seniority

Employees made redundant shall be ~~retrenched~~ after carefully considering length of service occupational skills and qualifications and satisfactory work record. The selection of employees will be made on the basis of retaining those who best service the operational needs of the continuing enterprise. The union will be kept fully informed.

Initially, redundancy may commence on a voluntary basis but if not enough employees take up voluntary redundancy then the above criteria will be used to provide sufficient flexibility into this area of selection.

33.4 Consultation

Where the employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected.

The employer shall provide to the employees concerned all relevant information about the changes proposed, and the expected effects of the changes on the employees.

33.5 Redundancy Payments

- (a) For under 12 months weekly service - Nil.
- (b) For each completed year of service, after 1 year, an employee made redundant shall receive three weeks pay for each year of service up to a maximum of sixty (60) weeks pay.

33.6 Redundancy Payments on Termination

In the event of the employer terminating the employment of an employee on account of redundancy, it shall give the employee a detailed statement of entitlements where practicable, at least two weeks prior to the date of termination, together with a statement of service setting out the employment record and reason for termination of the employee. An employee accepting redundancy shall not be entitled to be re-engaged in less than six months.

33.7 Notification to the Commonwealth Employment Service

Where a decision has been made to terminate the employment of employee, the employer shall notify the Commonwealth Employment Service thereof as soon as possible, giving relevant information including a written statement of the reasons for the terminations, the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected and the period over which ~~the terminations are intended to~~ be carried out.

33.8 Time Off to Seek A Job

The employee on notice of retrenchment shall be entitled to time off as per the following scale without loss of pay, in order to seek other employment, proof of which may be required by the employer.

- (a) Employees up to 3 years, 2 days paid leave to seek other employment.
- (b) Employees up to 5 years, 4 days paid leave to seek other employment.
- (c) All other employees 5 days paid leave to seek other employment.

33.9 Superannuation

Superannuation shall be paid in accordance with the relevant trust deed.

33.10 Exceptions

Redundancy shall not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that justified instant dismissal including malingering, inefficiency, or neglect of duty. Redundancy shall not apply to casual employees, or for persons engaged to complete a specific task or tasks. Redundancy shall not apply where an employee advised of a pending redundancy, elects to terminate their services prior to the date nominated by the employer.

Employees with less than 12 months weekly service at the time of retrenchment are not entitled to a severance payment.

33.11 Legal Entitlements

All legal entitlements will be paid out, such as:-

- (a) Long Service Leave, after 5 years service;
- (b) Annual Leave and Annual Leave Loading as legally required in New South Wales.

33.12 Access to the Employer's Facilities

The employer shall allow an employee who has been given notice, and subject to the approval of their supervisor, reasonable access to the employer's facilities to contact prospective employers and arrange interviews.

33.13 Leaving Employment During Period of Notice

The Company shall permit the employee who has been given notice to leave employment during that period by giving one week's pay in lieu and still receive the redundancy payment prescribed by subclause 33.5 of this clause. In this situation redundancy payments will be calculated up to and including the date of termination of employment.

34 . LATENESS

Where an employee is late for work, the employer shall have the option of sending the employee home without pay by taking into account such factors as:

- (a) Reason for lateness;
- (b) Whether the employer has hired a replacement casual employee.

35 . RIGHT OF ENTRY

35.1 In accordance with Section 733 of the Industrial Relations Act, 1991, as amended, an officer of the union duly authorised may enter the employer's enterprise. Provided that such officer shall not wilfully hamper or hinder the employees during their working time and may interview employees or converse with them in any lunch-time or non-working time.

35.2 In all other respects, Section 733 of the Industrial Relations Act, 1991, as amended, shall apply.

36. MIXED FUNCTIONS

- 36.1 Should an employee engaged at a higher paid class of work be transferred temporarily to a lower paid class of work, they shall continue to receive the higher rate during such transferred temporary employment.
- 36.2 An employee, who is required to do work carrying a higher rate than their ordinary classification for 2 hours or more on any day or shift, shall be paid at the higher rate for the whole of the day or shift.
- 36.3 Subject to subclause 36.2, of this clause, an employee who, on any day or shift, is required to do work of a higher paid classification for at least one hour shall be paid the rate prescribed for such work whilst so engaged.
- 36.4 While an employee is under training and supervised, they will retain existing wage rates for a training period as a guide of 152 hours (or 4 weeks) (and paid freezer allowance if working in freezers) in any one job.

37. SAVINGS PROVISIONS

- 37.1 No employee shall, as a result of the operation of the Agreement, suffer any loss of wages or other benefits which the employee enjoyed prior to the commencement of the Agreement unless the benefit was exchanged for another benefit or gain.

38. UNION FEES

- 38.1 An employee who requests to have their union membership fees and who signs an authority to deduct from to this effect shall have such fees deducted from their wages.
- 38.2 The employer shall forward such fees as deducted from an employee's wages to the union on a regular basis or otherwise as agreed between the employer and the union.

39. FIRST AID

- 39.1 All employees who hold a current First Aid Certificate will receive an allowance of $6.80 per week.

40. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

It is a condition of the agreement that the A.M.I.E.U (NSW) Branch and employees covered by this agreement will not pursue any or extra claims for the duration of this agreement.
